RULES

1. Ewe or wether lambs may be exhibited.
2. Any breed may be exhibited. All will show by weight only.
3. Lambs must be under the exhibitor's control at all times. Assistants are not allowed in the show ring, unless an exemption has been granted by the Livestock committee (example- special needs student requires assistant from another student)
4. Lambs will be divided into weight classes for the show. Classes will be determined by the show superintendent and livestock committee chairmen. Weigh in will be TBA.
5. Stall spaces will be assigned by the livestock committee prior to arrival.
6. All lambs will be uniformly shorn to the knees and hocks for the show. Boots and wool caps are allowed. No wool over 1/4 of an inch will be allowed, exhibitor will be allowed to correct it before the show or will be subject to disqualification.
7. If animals are given back to the exhibitor in the auction, that exhibitor is responsible for the removal of that animal from the fairgrounds after the auction.
8. Exhibitor must follow the Titus County Fair Junior Market Show general rules.
9. The judge will select the sale order following the General Livestock Rules. Breed champion and reserve champions will be placed in sale order before remaining lambs.
10. The judge's decision is final.
